

Book Club Bags at the Estes Valley Library

If you already have a book club you attend or if you would like to form a club, resources are now available at the Estes Valley Library. One book club member checks out a book club bag for the entire club to use! Stop by or call us at (970) 586-8116 (press 2) if you have any questions.

The following titles are available in the form of a Book Club Bag:

The art of racing in the rain by Garth Stein
The big burn by Timothy Egan
The brief wondrous life of Oscar Wao by Junot Diaz
The elegance of the hedgehog by Muriel Barbery
The finkler question by Howard Jacobsen
Half broke horses by Jeannette Walls
The lacuna by Barbara Kingsolver
Little bee by Chris Cleave
Mennonite in a little black dress by Rhoda Janzen
The quickening by Michelle Hoover
When everything changed by Gail Collins
The women by T.C. Boyle
Your money or your life by Vicki Robin & Joe Dominguez

- Book club bags include 12 paperback books and one “discussion guide” in a canvas tote bag.
- Bags can be found in the “New Book” area of the library.
- Card carrying members may check out one bag at a time for up to 6 weeks.
- We ask that one member of the book club be responsible for checking out the bag. Please ask book club members to return the book to the club member checking the bag out so all the contents of the bag will be returned at one time. Use the sheet provided to keep track of who has which book.
- Bags are considered checked-out until all contents are returned.
- Bags cannot be renewed.
- Return the Book Club Bags to the Service Desk inside the library; please do not put book bags in the book drop.
